Note. In the column headed "Dwelling-houses numbered in the order of visitation" each entry will be numbered—1st, 2nd, 3rd, &c.—according to the order of visitation of dwelling-houses, beginning with the first house visited by the Enumerator in the first District, and proceeding regularly to the last house visited by him in the last District. The object of this column is to secure that no dwelling-house shall be omitted in the Census, and that no dwelling-house shall be counted more than once. If a dwelling-house be found uninhabited when first visited by the Enumerator, a mark should be made in this column (as for example, in the case of the 2nd dwelling-house in the 1st District), and the word "Uninhabited" should be entered in column 2.

Column 3.—Families should be numbered in the order of visitation, beginning with 1 in each District. The object of this column is to secure that no family shall be omitted in the Census, and that no family shall be counted more than once. If a house be found uninhabited when first visited by the Enumerator, a mark should be made in this column (as for example, in the case of the 2nd house in the 1st District), and the word "Uninhabited" should be entered in column 2.

Column 4.—The Name of every Person who was living on the 1st day of June, 1880, must be entered in this column, whether he or she be a member of the family named in column 3, or a visitor, or a servant, or a lodger, or a boarder, in the house on that day. Persons who have died since the 1st day of June, 1880, must not be entered. Children born since the 1st day of June, 1880, must be entered. Visitors should be entered after the family of the house in which they are present on the 1st day of June, 1880, has been entered.

Column 1.—In numbering, commence with the number 1. Write the number on the first dwelling-house visited, 2 on the next, and so on in the order of visitation.

Column 2.—In numbering, commence with the number 1. Write the number in the first family visited, 2 in the next, and so on in the order of visitation.

Column 3.—Write the name of every person living on the 1st day of June, 1880, and of every person who died between that date and the time of visitation, whether living or dead at the time of visitation. Begin with the name of the person who occupies the first dwelling-house visited, and write the names of all the persons in that house before proceeding to the next house. Write the name of the head of the family first, and then the names of the other members of the family in the order of their ages, as far as practicable. Persons living in hotels, boarding-houses, &c., should be reported separately, the proprietor's family first, and then the boarders, arranged alphabetically. Be careful to report every person who was living on the 1st day of June, 1880, and every person who died between that date and the time of visitation, and no others. Do not report children born after the 1st day of June, 1880, but report every person living on that day, though born previous to 1880. Be careful to report every person who died between the 1st day of June, 1880, and the time of visitation, though he may have died previous to 1880. Be careful to report every person who died between the 1st day of June, 1880, and the time of visitation, though he may have died previous to 1880.

Column 4.—Write the relation which each person bears to the head of the family, as husband, wife, son, daughter, father, mother, brother, sister, grandson, granddaughter, servant, &c.

Column 5.—Write W. for white, B. for black, Mu. for mulatto, Q. for quadroon, Ch. for Chinese, and I. for Indian.

Column 6.—Write the age of each person at his last birthday prior to the 1st day of June, 1880. If under one year, write 6 m. for six months, 9 m. for nine months, &c.

Column 7.—Write M. for male, and F. for female.

Column 8.—Write the profession, occupation or trade of each person, male or female. If a child or person without occupation, write at home, at school, or without occupation, as the case may be.

Column 9.—If the person has been sick during the Census Year, write the number of months he was sick. If he has been unable to work on account of sickness, write the number of months he was unable to work.

Column 10.—Write the number of months each person has attended school within the Census Year.

Column 11.—Write 1 for every person who cannot read.

Column 12.—Write 1 for every person who cannot write.

Column 13.—Write the name of the State, Territory or Country in which each person was born. Be careful to report the name of the State, Territory or Country in which each person was born, and not the name of the town or county in which he was born. Use the following abbreviations: Ala., Ark., Cal., Col., Conn., Dak., Del., Fla., Ga., Ill., Ind., Ia., Kan., Ky., La., Me., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Miss., Mo., Mont., Neb., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Or., Penn., R. I., S. C., Tenn., Tex., Ut., Vt., Va., W. T., Wis., W. Va., Wy. T.

Column 14.—If the person was born in a foreign country, write the name of the country in which his father was born.

Column 15.—If the person was born in a foreign country, write the name of the country in which his mother was born.
